NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME: ACTIVITIES

As an integral part of the society & with a real involvement as well enduring interest towards it, AEC-KODAD NSS remains instrumental to instil, inspire/to induce students in societal services & the relevant activities. Eventually enthusiastic participants as volunteers do carryout many accomplishing deeds as committed conduct often as beneath.

1. Globally it is a time honoured program and process which makes the people in general and in specific our NSS wing to collect saplings from concerned departments. Planting of these saplings in the avenues , required areas as per the requirement in order to satiate and to abate as well avert deforestation. Our NSS unit effect it annually and even more if necessity demands.
2. As the world become populace and the vehicular movements increases and as well the ailments, the importance of blood and prominence of blood donation are apparent; in this regard our NSS wing remain second to none and so organize Blood Donation camps periodically with enthusiastic volunteers to donate blood and help the people in emergency need of blood and save their lives on humanitarian aspects. These activities have been well advocated by the Indian Red cross Society, and the volunteers are appropriately honoured , also often we stand first in the district by attracting laurels and accolades.

4. For AIDS still there is an aid ,to curb this by creating awareness among masses, which is being carried out by many wings across the world as a matter of taking cue our Anurag NSS wing too exert in which and awareness program was organized in order to create the awareness among the rural public so as to curb the menace of HIV aids which has attracted the accolades.
5. Our nation is a developing one and it requires enormous money and resources to develop. Transaction of cash in liquid form is a customary in our country and at present is posing threat to the development in terms of stash accumulation, evading taxes, funding anti-social elements... To control and avert this our nation is moving with strides towards cashless transactions vowing to which Anurag NSS team has allocated few of its volunteers to get trained by the govt. and in turn trained the rural rustic illiterates which bagged laurels and accolades from all the section of the society.
6. No doubt now a days water is a liquid gold and forests are the treasure troves of biodiversity automatically there are to be used prudently and with equitable share so as to be left for future generations in the sustainable sense .To impart knowledge of this among student community a seminar was organized by NSS wing in which the participants exhorted about the importance of natural resources and their conservation in the present scenario which is a tedious job with the increasing populace

1. Globally Haritha Haram is a time honoured program and process which makes the people in general and in specific our NSS wing to collect saplings from concerned departments. Planting of these saplings in the avenues , required areas as per the requirement in order to satiate and to abate as well avert deforestation. Our NSS unit effect it annually and even more if necessity demands.
2. Our nation is a developing one and it requires enormous money and resources to develop, any nation's progress is considered on the per capita resources and as the population burgeon these limited resources get degraded resulting in their unavailability, inequitable consumption and quest for resources leading to the uncertainty of development with irreversible impact on the economy thereby the living standards. To create and inculcate awareness regarding the same in the rural public Anurag NSS Unit has taken the onus of conducting awareness camp on the negative effects of high population on the families and also country. Women of the area has complained about the problems they face due to more children and less income.
3. As the world become populace and the vehicular movements increases and as well the ailments, the importance of blood and prominence of blood donation are apparent; in this regard our NSS wing remain second to none and so organize Blood Donation camps periodically with enthusiastic volunteers to donate blood and help the people in emergency need of blood and save their lives on humanitarian aspects. volunteers are appropriately honoured , also often we stand first in the district by attracting laurels and accolades.

4. As said by the father of the nation rural areas are paramount for the nation's furtherance. Seven decades post independence still these areas are lagging on par to their urban peers as they are unable to reap the results of development. To uplift the rural rustic in match to the nation's development Anurag NSS Unit has conducted an Immersion Camp in the adjacent rural area in order to create the awareness of the problems they do experience, and this has attracted the accolades.
