Program Report

Program Name: An Awareness camp on Population Control

As the human population on the earth is increasing without any boundaries there comes the problem of resources degradation as majority of natural resources are finite and cannot be replaced/regenerated. So as to inculcate the thinking of control of population and its advantages on the families, society, nation and the world, a small camp on Population Control was done in Ananthagiri and Venkatrampuram villages by the volunteers, students, faculty with the help form concerned villages officials in which volunteers and students exerted a lot to explain the importance and implications of population control to the villagers in general and females in specific.

Program Report

Program Name: An Elocution Competition on Human Rights

After the World War II all the nations agreed for particular rights to all the citizens and the same was endorsed under the aegis of United Nations. Still substantial number of people is unaware of their rights. In this regard NSS unit has conducted an elocution competition in which few students imbibed the importance of human rights and participated in the competition as well expressed in an evident way which attracted applauds from the judges.

Program Report

Program Name: Seminar Competition on Water Resources and their Conservation

Water is a natural resource which exists in all the forms and a pre-requisite for the formation and perpetuation of life on earth. Besides, the ascendance in human population combined with altered lifestyles and agricultural cum industrial revolution has initiated the over exploitation and consumption of this resource making it contaminated and reduced endangering many lives. Still, the existing water need to satisfy the ever increasing population which gives too much stress on the available resources, at this juncture it is paramount duty of us to conserve this precious resource and regarding this a seminar competition was held by NSS in which the inclined volunteers and students equipped themselves and participated and shared their views to conserve this precious resource for the existence of life on earth.

Program Report

Program Name: An Awareness program on Water Resources and their Conservation

Water is a natural resource which exists in all the forms and a pre-requisite for the formation and perpetuation of life on earth. Besides, the ascendance in human population combined with altered lifestyles and agricultural cum industrial revolution has initiated the over exploitation and consumption of this resource making it contaminated and reduced endangering many lives. Still, the existing water need to satisfy the ever increasing population which gives too much stress on the available resources, at this juncture it is paramount duty of us to conserve this precious resource and regarding Awareness program was held by NSS in which the inclined volunteers and students participated.
