BRIEF REPORT ON

A THREE DAY FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME –

08/06/2016 TO 10/06/2016

I session on 08-06-16

The ever beneficial above mentioned annual programme got initiated with the prelude address of our beloved & much hyped, knowledgeable Dr. M. Siva Prasad who casually came out with his precious remarks on the paramount nature of the mind boggling/blowing FDP then & there or at least annually to refresh & update them academically. He quoted so many & emitted enormous captions on education & educationist on this apt occasion on the intellectual giants of yesteryears & the extant faculty from whom he derived the acumen & adroitness a lot & to whom he owes abundantly incessantly. Amidst such welcoming attitude coming out he did spell out the importance of Mr. Sai Kumar Prof & dean, IPE, Hyd., RESOURCE PERSON to be with us to enliven the very much ardent & ebullient faculty by his affluent eminence in English, out of the treasure trove, indeed by his immense erudition. The said Resource person, second to none in his attainment is nonetheless deserve very welcoming in all senses with everybody's verily involvement to fruition by his iridescent methodology.

Though an erudite he was nevertheless ostentatious throughout the duration but his humble approach is to the anticipation from the very start. He explained on the individual person, his/her personality as well covered the prime personality cult. His expatiation on all these delicate was very simple reproductive & alluring which took faculty to their edge of their seats. As very much informative, illustrative, lucrative all maintained quorum & remain spell bounded. So the scenario was an overwhelming enthusiasm from all corners invariably.

In the second session still he proved his prowess academically. His methodology revealed that there are so much to augment in the career of the individual through some well packed / genned up resource personalities. The acknowledging blooming visage did encourage him to be incessant in his contents. At times he was effervescent with his erudition which enabled the participants to add to their extant stuff in them. Nothing hurried and indeed impressive time on both sides. Nothing scripted and it was just like a manuscript to recall and read again.

The same personality development program for engineering faculty comprised of the importance of Personality Development within engineering faculty to become the role model to the student community. Faculty in every aspect in all angles irradiate or the vignette each and every minute as they contact students assiduously in their progress. As per resource person the state of existing as a particular person the whole nature or character of him/her at times as unusual, strong exciting character or who is well known to the public or to people connected with some particular activity. If he/she a good is of good personality, the student/public goes to practice of giving too great admiration, praise, love to a particular person. He looked at in its all perspectives which lead faculty to pick up in the own way and choice to practice. His key words being assiduity towards personality coming up, vocabulary built up, filial piety & insisted for old age parental care etc.

The second day was very much lively with the resource person the well equipped Mr. Gampa Nageswara rao, psychologist soft skills trainer ,LIC development officer who dealt with "personality development for professional teachers " & he garnered the entire attention of the participants as it involved the main aspects of day to day effecting & getting appreciations by some simple techniques of easy catch up with no such much measures yet highly practicable ones. The resource person toutèd & vouched certain sincere follow up daily with some assiduity. His steps to remember form the icon of discipline which would take the status of labeling him as a martinet slowly & steadily . Consequent to that he became not only systematic & his vignette ascends in all sense. Stepwise he becomes more towards the accumulation of his importunate characteristic in all matters of concern.

His first & foremost point of concern being that "dress maketh a man perfect" and it is grass root of all. As the present generation & much more of the things get done by his/her appearance in general amidst public & in offices in specific. He & she when expresses any matter to anybody of any cadre finds gets response not by importance of the matter dealt but the gentility of the individual who presents that one to the other one. He augmented so many matters to take cue from the well dressed /appearing personalities. He never spared anybody of any age/ stage to get exempted especially in the matter of dress code. He was with blooming visage when he looked at the gathering of that day. He still insisted that this attitude is to be further to be further molded well in terms of the body requisite parameters as a demand of this day /era specifically amidst the learned faculty who remain the role models & exemplary in their approach by their very presentation daily at any cost. These formed the key words of him in all aspects. His insistence in this line /way got the very much approval by their simple acknowledge with the expression of deep thought & assurance to stamp their goodness by their facial on spot gestures in this importunate aspects.

3rd day

Being the day of valediction, contrary to the general feelings of the participants being a sort of repetition and recurrence happening the ebullient and jubilant resource person Dr. Muralidhar Soft Skill Trainer, Hyderabad did amidst the introduction in his present expression from the very initiation of the caption of the day " Motivation and Inspiration to Transform as Laudable " as he is well versed in his field of recent applicability, he stacked his points aspects lucidly with coherence and the logical sequence of him was so good and the ever remembering faculty never distracted their attention at any cost. They went on noting even the pernickety ones as they are so much indulged and dwelled in his lecturing on the topic of the day from which faculty imbibed a practice of giving too great admiration praise, love to a particular person. He looked at in its all perspectives which lead faculty to pick up in the own way and choice to practice. His key words being assiduity towards personality coming up, vocabulary built up, filial piety & insisted for old age parental care etc.

The second day was very much lively with the resource person the well equipped Mr. Gampa Nageswara rao, psychologist soft skills trainer ,LIC development officer who dealt with 'personality development for professional teachers ' & he garnered the entire attention of the participants as it involved the main aspects of day to day effecting & getting appreciations by some simple techniques of easy catch up with no such much measures yet highly practicable ones. The resource person touted & vouched certain sincere follow up daily with some assiduity. His steps to remember form the icon of discipline which would take the status of labeling him as a martinet slowly & steadily . Consequent to that he became not only systematic & his vignette ascends in all sense. Stepwise he becomes more towards the accumulation of his importunate characteristic in all matters of concern

His first & foremost point of concern being that 'dress maketh a man perfect' and it is grass root of all. As the present generation & much more of the things get done by his/her appearance in general amidst public & in offices in specific. He & she when expresses any matter to anybody of any cadre finds gets response not by importance of the matter dealt but the gentility of the individual who presents that one to the other one. He augmented so many matters to take cue from the well dressed /appearing personalities. He never spared anybody of any age/ stage to get exempted especially in the matter of dress code. He was with blooming visage when he looked at the gathering of that day. He still insisted that this attitude is to be further to be further molded well in terms of the body requisite parameters as a demand of this day /era specifically amidst the learned faculty who remain the role models & exemplary in their approach by their very presentation daily at any cost. These formed the key words of him in all aspects. His insistence in this line /way got the very much approval by their simple acknowledge with the expression of deep thought & assurance to stamp their goodness by their facial on-spot gestures in this importunate aspects.

3rd day

Being the day of valediction, contrary to the general feelings of the participants being a sort of repetition and recurrence happening the ebullient and jubilant resource person Dr. Muralidhar Soft Skill Trainer, Hyderabad did amidst the introduction in his present expression from the very initiation of the caption of the day " Motivation and Inspiration to Transform as Laudable " as he is well versed in his field of recent applicability, he stacked his points aspects lucidly with coherence and the logical sequence of him was so good and the ever remembering faculty never distracted their attention at any cost. They went on noting even the pernickety ones as they are so much indulged and dwelled in his lecturing on the topic of the day from which faculty imbibed a practice of giving too great admiration praise, love to a particular person. He looked at in its all perspectives which lead faculty to pick up in the own way and choice to practice. His key words being assiduity towards personality coming up, vocabulary built up, filial piety & insisted for old age parental care etc.

The second day was very much lively with the resource person the well equipped Mr. Gampa Nageswara rao, psychologist soft skills trainer ,LIC development officer who dealt with "personality development for professional teachers " & he garnered the entire attention of the participants as it involved the main aspects of day to day effecting & getting appreciations by some simple techniques of easy catch up with no such much measures yet highly practicable ones. The resource person toutèd & vouchèd certain sincere follow up daily with some assiduity. His steps to remember form the icon of discipline which would take the status of labeling him as a martinet slowly & steadily . Consequent to that he became not only systematic & his vignette ascends in all sense. Stepwise he becomes more towards the accumulation of his importunate characteristic in all matters of concern.

His first & foremost point of concern being that "dress maketh a man perfect" and it is grass root of all. As the present generation & much more of the things get done by his/her appearance in general amidst public & in offices in specific. He & she when expresses any matter to anybody of any cadre finds gets response not by importance of the matter dealt but the gentility of the individual who presents that one to the other one. He augmented so many matters to take cue from the well dressed /appearing personalities. He never spared anybody of any age/ stage to get exempted especially in the matter of dress code. He was with blooming visage when he looked at the gathering of that day. He still insisted that this attitude is to be further to be further molded well in terms of the body requisite parameters as a demand of this day /era specifically amidst the learned faculty who remain the role models & exemplary in their approach by their very presentation daily at any cost. These formed the key words of him in all aspects. His insistence in this line /way got the very much approval by their simple acknowledge with the expression of deep thought & assurance to stamp their goodness by their facial on spot gestures in this importunate aspects.

3rd day

Being the day of valediction, contrary to the general feelings of the participants being a sort of repetition and recurrence happening the ebullient and jubilant resource person Dr. Muralidhar Soft Skill Trainer, Hyderabad did amidst the introduction in his present expression from the very initiation of the caption of the day " Motivation and Inspiration to Transform as Laudable " as he is well versed in his field of recent applicability, he stacked his points aspects lucidly with coherence and the logical sequence of him was so good and the ever remembering faculty never distracted their attention at any cost. They went on noting even the pernickety ones as they are so much indulged and dwelled in his lecturing on the topic of the day from which faculty imbibed a lot. The interaction and the questioning cum answering time were highly inspiring as none were disappointed in their exchange of views.

The caption of the third consecutive and the last day which aspired not only those who orchestrated but also the all concerned namely " Motivation and Inspiration to Transform as Laudable ". It is a step wise yet more involved/dedicated one to plan for motivation through inspiration with utmost sincerity and inspiration intern at times with long duration paves way to transform to laudableness indeed universal/primal which is not an ordinary matter to implement . it doesn't come out of just posing or depicting but takes to the psychological feature that arouses the senses towards a desired goal with enough reasons for the actions which directs the behavior. All the initiative measures end in incentive to dwell in that motivation out of inspiration from others. Accolade applaud are the foremost outcomes of these and the top notching one being the praise worthiness which directs/takes others imbibe intern to inculcate in other to widespread the laudability. This forms the back bone/spinal of the education in all ways and always. So the topic had its own appraisal and approved welcoming.

Consummately the entire three days of six sessions compete with each other in their essence yet all are equally essential to the entire faculty. And as touched delicate matters of social and educational importance all gathered. All garnered very good information from the gift of the gab and speech prowess of resource persons who gird up their loins to emphasize the prominent status of a well balanced academician/academic aspects of the all awe-inspiring topic/heading and all the resource persons awfully dealt over which the participants remained awe-stricken. The tempo was well maintained throughout the duration which made the grand success of the all efforts by all.

Participants came out with their own evaluation on the benefits obtained & expressed their gratification on behalf of colleagues and on their own behalf which fulfilled the objective of the resource persons and touched the hearts of them fully as well sentimentally. They specifically mentioned off both sides that a chance in future to deliver & hear such valuable headings again would be a boon.

Vote of thanks was uttered by Mr. PAWAN TEQIP Coordinator who thanked the resource persons, the participants, organizers, management and others concern ensuring as if it reached them to individuals entire satisfaction; function came to an end with National Anthem.
